Edward Stone of Ed Stone Photography

Edward Stone is the owner of Ed Stone Photography. He has been doing photographic work, videography and is an educator for over forty years.

A long time resident of New Hyde Park he has taken commercial photographs, formal portraits, catalogs, weddings, store interiors and photos of special events. Ed has also taken public relations photos and videos for the military including aerial photography, forensic photography and chronicling of events. His motto is "Photography is the glue for memories".

Ed is very involved in community service and has been with the Nassau County Auxiliary Police for over thirty years. He is also an active member of the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, a Public Relations Officer and was a Flotilla Commander for two years.

He is a retired NYC high school band director and currently plays trumpet in The Old Bethpage Village Brass Band, The American Concert Band and The Front Page (a 17 piece Big Band).

Since joining the New Hyde Park Chamber of Commerce three years ago he has made many new contacts and met a number of interesting people in the community.

Ed Stone does on location work and has trademark mobil units for various types of events. To contact Ed Stone Photography please call 516-248-7509 or e-mail EdStonePhotography@msn.com.
